

Up-skilling, re-skilling and right-skilling

Date and time: 16 November 2018, 10:00am start– 2:00 pm

Venue: National Centre for Vocational Education Research, 60 Light Square, 5th Floor

Registration: Free – but please RSVP to Josie Misko (josiemisko@ncver.edu.au) and copy in Emerick.chew@ncver.edu.au)

Agenda

- 10:00 am – 10:05 am: Welcome and Housekeeping
- 10:05 am – 10:30 am: Setting the skilling scene: a snapshot of VET uptake and participation, Toni Cavallaro, NCVER
- 10:30 am – 11:10 am: Up-skilling and re-skilling in the Service Skills sector: learnings from the field, Graham Oades, CEO Service Skills SA
- 11:10 am – 11:20 am: About AVETRA membership and services, Roger Harris, Editor, International Journal of Training and Research (IJTR)
- 11:20 am – 11:40 am: Refreshments
- 11:40 am – 12:20 pm: Skills for Future Jobs: training priorities and skills development, Training and Skills Commission, SA Training and Skills Commission (TASC)
- 12:20 pm – 12:40 pm: Right-skilling: using online job vacancy postings to identify skills requested by employers and industry, Kristen Osborne and Emerick Chew, NCVER
- 12:40 pm – 1:15 pm: Up-skilling and right-skilling: the role of un-accredited training and skill sets, Ian White, Gitta Siekmann, John Stanwick, NCVER
- 1:15 pm – 2:00 pm: Re-skilling existing workers: structural adjustment in the automotive manufacturing industry, Ian Curry, Australian Manufacturing Workers Union

